Collection and use of personal data of applicants, customers, suppliers and other contractors and business contacts

Please note that we will collect and use the personal data you provide to us as this is necessary to enter into and perform any agreement with you. This applies both to our (potential) customers and to parties from whom we purchase business and/or services. If you are a (potential) customer of ours, we will use your details to send you an offer, to determine what specifications or wishes a particular item or service should meet, to be able to deliver items or carry out work for you, to invoice you and to be able to communicate with you smoothly and efficiently about the execution aspects of the agreement.

If you are a (potential) supplier or another contractor, your personal data is also necessary for the conclusion and execution of the agreement. In the case of purchasing, this is necessary in order to be able to let you know what specifications or wishes a particular item or service should meet as far as we are concerned, to be able to send a request for a quotation or place an order with you, to be able to pay your invoices and to be able to communicate with you smoothly and efficiently about other aspects of the agreement.

You are not obliged to provide us with your personal data. However, if you do not provide us with any or sufficient personal data, we may not be able to carry out the aforementioned work.

If you are an applicant, we will use your details to communicate with you about the course of the application procedure, the assessment of your suitability for a position that is or may be vacant and the settlement of any expenses you may have incurred.

Transfer to third parties

In connection with the execution of any agreement with you, we may have to provide your personal data to parties who supply parts, materials and products to us or carry out work on our behalf. We also use external server space to store (parts of) our sales and purchasing records, of which your personal data is a part. For this reason, your personal data will be provided to our server room provider. We also use Microsoft Office and the associated storage options for e-mails and other files. Because we use a newsletter mailing service, your personal data will also be passed on to the provider of this service.

Direct marketing

If you have given us your permission, we will store and use the personal data you have provided us with in order to inform you personally by e-mail of our existing and new products and services in the future and to make you an offer for them. Every time we send you an advertising email, you have the opportunity to let us know that you no longer wish to receive it. See the unsubscribe link at the bottom of every mailing.

We also use external server space to store (parts of) our contact file. If you are a relation of ours, your personal data forms part of this. For this reason, your personal data will be provided to our server room provider. We also use Microsoft Office and the associated storage options for e-mails and other files. Because we use a newsletter mailing service, your personal data will also be passed on to the provider of this service, provided you have given your consent.

Personal data retention period

If you have requested a quote from us but have not become a customer, we will delete your data no later than one year after our last contact. Even if we have received an offer from you, but have not become a customer of yours, your personal data will be deleted at the latest one year after our last contact. If you have become a customer with us or if we have become a customer with you, we will retain your personal data for a period of seven years after the end of the financial year in which the agreement with you has been fully executed. The period of seven years corresponds to the period during which we are obliged to keep our records for the Tax and Customs Administration. At the end of this period, we will remove your personal data.

If you are an applicant, we will delete your application data no later than 4 weeks after the end of the application procedure, unless you have given us permission to keep your data for a maximum period of 1 year.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us to view your personal data. If there is reason to do so, you can also ask us to supplement your personal data or to change inaccuracies. In addition, you have the right to request the deletion of your personal data or to limit the use of your personal data. You can also object to our collection and use of your data or submit a complaint to the Personal Data Authority. Finally, you can request us to obtain your personal data or transfer them to another party. In order to exercise your rights, please contact us: Technische Handelsonderneming C. v.d. Pols en Zn. B.V. M. ten Cate, Stationsweg 36, 3241 VK Zuidland, +31 (0)181 458845, info@pols.nl. If you have any questions or want more information about the collection and use of your personal data, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer, tablet or smartphone when you visit our website. These text files store information that can be recognised by the website during a later visit.

Our website uses tracking cookies if you have given your permission. We do this to collect information about your Internet behaviour so that we can make you targeted offers for products or services. You may withdraw your consent at any time. Your data will be stored for a maximum of one year.

We also place functional cookies. We do this to make it easy to use our website. Examples include storing products in your shopping cart or remembering your login details during your visit.

Analytical cookies enable us to see which pages are visited and what is clicked on within our website. For this, we use Google Analytics. The information that Google collects in this way is made anonymous as much as possible.
